INDEX TO VOLUME 3, FOREST SCIENCE, 1957

Art.—article; rev.—review; art. (rev.)—review of article or book by.
Authors are indicated by capitals and scientific names by italics.

Air-layering of slash pine. art. 344
ALLEN, DONALD G. art. 336
Association of Cytophoma pruinosa with drying ash. art. 75
Association of yeasts with the Douglas-fir beetle. art. 336
BEAZLEY, RONALD. art. 22, 321
BECKER, GUNTHER. rev. 335
Beetle, Douglas-fir. Association of yeasts with the. art. 336
Beetles, ambrosia, in softwood logs on Vancouver Island, British Columbia. Studies of attack by. art. 90
BENJAMIN, DANIEL M. art. 249
BENSON, LYMAN. rev. 262
Biology and control of the white-fir sawfly. art. 306
BOLLEN, WALTER B. art. 336
BOYCE, J. S. art. 225
BRANDT, R. W. art. 75
BRINKMAN, KENNETH A. art. 253
Brooming of Douglas-fir and other conifers in British Columbia and Alberta. Unexplained. art. 236
BUCHHOLZ, E. rev. 343
BUCKLAND, D. C. art. 236
CABORN, J. M. rev. 373
CAIN, STANLEY A. art. (rev.) 70
Canker and dieback of poplars caused by Dothichiza populea. art. 175
CANTRELL, J. O. art. 32
CARVELL, K. L. art. 32
Chromosome studies in pine needles and root tips of slash pine. Squash technique for. art. 56
CLARK, JOE E. art. 314
Classification of the spatial distribution of trees using the area sampling method. art. 22
Climate near the ground, The. rev. 372
Comparative decay resistance of some common pines, hemlock, spruce, and true fir. art. 314
Construction of forest roads. rev. 234
Control of soil moisture depletion through use of 2,4-D on a mustard nurse crop during Douglas-fir seedling establishment. art. 329
COOK, J. A. art. 286, 376
CRAM, W. H. art. 263
CUTTING, STEPHEN G. art. 355
Cytophoma pruinosa with dying ash. Association of. art. 75
DAVIS, KENNETH P. art. (rev.) 374
Decay resistance of some common pines, hemlock, spruce, and true fir. Comparative. art. 314
DECKER, JOHN P. art. 350
Defoliation. Radial growth in forest trees and effects of insect. art. 286
DILS, ROBERT E. art. (rev.) 144
DOOLITTLE, WARREN T. art. 114
Double branch whorls in white pine. art. 71
Douglas-fir beetle development. Contribution toward a study of. art. 156
Douglas-fir. Ecotypic response to temperature and photoperiod in. art. 79
Douglas-fir. Possible occurrence of viable unfertilized seeds in. art. 243
Dothichiza populea. Canker and dieback of poplars caused by. art. 175
DUFFIELD, JOHN W. art. 21, art. (rev.) 60
Economics of plantations. rev. 374
Ecotypic response to temperature and photoperiod in Douglas-fir. art. 79
Effect of continuous high light intensity on photosynthesis of forest tree seedlings. art. 220
Effect of precipitation and temperature on increment of yellow-poplar. art. 32
Effects of defoliaiton by the lodgepole needle miner. The. art. 376
Effects of water upon the seed germination of bottomland trees. art. 67

ELLIS, EVERETT. art. (rev.) 219
Embryo dormancy and embryo vigor of sugar pine as affected by length of storage and storage temperatures. art. 357
ENGELHARDT, N. T. art. 125
Estimation of forest management inventory data from aerial photographic measurements. art. 270
FINNIS, J. M. art. 329
Fir, balsam. Infection courts of butt-rotting fungi in. art. 15
Forest nursery practice in the Lake States. rev. 328
FRASER, D. A. art. 184
Fungus causing western gall rust and woodgate rust of pines. The. art. 225
Further applications of skewness and central tendency tests with the rectangular distribution as a criterion. art. 321
Future of arid lands. The rev. 70
Geiger, Rudolf. rev. 372
GHENT, A. W. art. 184
GOFORTH, M. H. art. 84
Grading-equipment in the construction of forest roads. rev. 234
GRAHAM, K. art. 90
GREGORY, G. ROBINSON. art (rev.) 136
Growth habits of the eucalypts. rev. 60
Growth in forest trees and effects of insect defoliation. Radial. art. 286
Growth of conifers. Seasonal height. art. 61
Growth of deciduous trees. Seasonal height. art. 168
HAAR, N. D. art. 84
HADEN-GUEST, STEPHEN. rev. 136
HAFNER, FRANZ. rev. 234
Hail damage to five-year-old red pine in northern Wisconsin. art. 249
HEDENIGG, WALTER. rev. 234
Hemlock, western, on southern Vancouver Island. Pathological deterioration of looper-killed. art. 125
HERRERA, LEE. rev. 252
HILEY, W. E. rev. 374
HOEKSTRA, P. E. art. 344
HOSNER, JOHN F. art. 67
HOUGH, ASHBEL F. art. (rev.) 372
Importance of mycorrhizae to ponderosa pine sedelings. art. 275
Increment of yellow-poplar. Effect of precipitation and temperature on. art. 32
Infection courts of butt-rotting fungi in balsam fir. art. 15
Initiation and development of flower primordia in slash pine. art. 145
Inventory data from aerial photographic measurements. Estimation of forest management. art. 270
IRGENS-MOLLER, HELGE. art. 79
Isolation strip width. A logical approach to. art. 73
JACOBS, M. R. rev. 60
JANE, F. W. rev. 219
JOHNSON, T. W., JR. art. 84
JONES, G. W. rev. 328
KER, J. W. art. 137
KOERTING, LOLA E. art. 145
KOESTLER, JOSEF. rev. 55
Köestler's silviculture. rev. 55
KORSTIAN, C. F. art. (rev.) 328
KOZLOWSKI, THEODORE T. art. 61, 168, 220
KRAMER, PAUL J. art. 45
KUIJT, JOB. art. 236
LINDGREN, R. M. art. (rev.) 335
LITTLE, ELBERT L., JR. art. 253
Logical approach to isolation strip width. A. art. 73
LU, K. C. art. 336
MAINLAND, DONALD. rev. 252
Male flowers on one-year-old Mugo pine seedlings. art. 355
Maturity of white spruce cones and seed. art. 263
McCOMB, A. L. art. 253
McKELL, CYRUS M. art. 329
MERGEN, FRANCOIS. art. 56, 145, 355
Method for measuring transpiration of intract plants under controlled light, humidity, and temperature.

A. art. 350
Miner, lodgepole needle. The effects of defoliation by the. art. 376
Moisture depletion through use of 2,4-D on a mustard nurse crop during Douglas-fir seedling establishment. Control of soil. art. 329
MOTT, D. G. art. 286
Mychorrhizae. Importance of mychorrhizae to ponderosa pine seedlings. art. 275
NAIRN, L. D. art. 286
NELSON, W. L. rev. 144
NOVOTNY, HELEN M. art. 56
Oak, scarlet and black, in relation to Southern Appalachian soil and topography. Site index of. art. 114
Observations on yellow-poplar dieback. art. 84
ORR-EWING, A. L. art. 243
Pathological deterioration of looper-killed western hemlock on southern Vancouver Island. art. 125
PAUL, BENSON H. art. 71
Photoperiod in Douglas-fir. Ecotypic response to temperature and. art. 79
Photoperiod on the height growth of loblolly pine seedlings. Some effects of various combinations of day and night temperatures and. art. 45
Photosynthesis of forest tree seedlings. Effect of continuous high light intensity on. art. 220
Pine, loblolly, seedlings. Some effects of various combinations of day and night temperatures and photoperiod on the height growth of. art. 45
Pine, loblolly. Specific gravity indices for use in breeding. art. 281
Pine, Mugo, seedlings. Male flowers on one-year-old. art. 355
Pine, ponderosa, seedlings. Importance of mychorrhizae to. art. 275
Pine, red, in northern Wisconsin. Hail damage to five-year-old. art. 249
Pine, slash. Air-layering of. art. 344
Pine, slash. Initiation and development of flower primordia in. art. 145
Pine, slash. Squash technique for chromosome studies in pine needles and root tips of. art. 56
Pine, sugar, as affected by length of storage and storage temperatures. Embryo dormancy and embryo vigor of. art. 357
Pine, white. Double branch whorls in. art. 71
Plant classification. rev. 262
Point-sampling compared with plot-sampling in southeast Texas. art. 2
Poplars. Two natural Iowa hybrid. art. 253
Possible occurrence of viable unfertilized seeds in Douglas-fir. art. 243
POWELL, R. W., JR. art. 84
PREBBLE, M. L. art. 90
Primordia in slash pine. Initiation and development of flower. art. 145
Projection of the recreational use of public forest areas in California to 1965. A. art. 210
Protection against wood deterioration. rev. 335
Radial growth in forest trees and effects of insect defoliation. art. 286
Ratchet wrench for over-size increment borers. A. art. 21
READ, RALPH A. art. (rev.) 373
Recording micrometer. art. 66
Recreational use of public forest areas in California to 1965. A projection of the. art. 210
REDMOND, D. R. art. 15
Regeneration in forest stands devastated by the spruce budworm. Studies of. art. 184
RHODES, R. R. art. 281
ROBERTS, EDWARD G. art. 73
RUDINSKY, J. A. art. 156
Russian-German forestry dictionary. rev. 343
Rust, western gall, and woodgate rust of pines. The fungus causing. art. 225
Rust, woodgate, of pines. The fungus causing western gall rust and. art. 225
Sampling forest stands. Some distributions encountered in. art. 137
Sawfly, white-fir. Biology and control of the. art. 306

Seasonal height growth of conifers. art. 61
Seasonal height growth of deciduous trees. art. 168
Seed germination of bottomland trees. Effects of water upon the. art. 67
Seeds in Douglas-fir. Possible occurrence of viable unfertilized. art. 243
Shelterbelts and microclimate. rev. 373
SHIDELER, ANN. art. 210
SHIUE, CHERNG-JIANN. art. 22, 321
SILVERBORG, S. B. art. 75
Site index of scarlet and black oak in relation to Southern Appalachian soil and topography. art. 114
Skewness and central tendency tests with the rectangular distribution as a criterion. Further applications of. art. 321
SMITH, J. H. G. art. 137
Soil fertility and fertilizers. rev. 144
Some distributions encountered in sampling forest stands. art. 137
Some effects of various combinations of day and night temperatures and photoperiod on the heigth growth of loblolly pine seedlings. art. 45
Spacial distribution. Classification of using area sampling method. art. 22
Specific gravity indices for use in breeding loblolly pine. art. 281
Spruce budworm. Studies of regeneration in forest stands devastated by the. art. 184
Spruce, white, cones and seed. Maturity of. art. 263
SPURR, STEPHEN H. art. (rev.) 55, art. 66
Squash technique for chromosome studies in pine needles and root tips of slash pine. art. 56
STAHELIN, R. art. (rev.) 343
STARK, R. W. art. 376
STOECKELER, J. H. rev. 328
STONE, EDWARD C. art. 357
STOVER, W. S. art. 2
STRUBLE, GEORGE R. art. 306
Structure of wood. The. rev. 219
Studies of attack by ambrosia beetles in softwood logs on Vancouver Island, British Columbia. art. 90
Studies of regeneration in forest stands devastated by the spruce budworm. art. 184
SUTCLIFFE, MARION I. rev. 252
Tables for use with binomial samples — contingency tests, confidence limits and sample size estimates. rev. 252
TECLAFF, EILEEN M. rev. 136
Temperature and photoperiod in Douglas-fir. Ecotypic response to. art. 79
THEDEN, GERDA. rev. 335
THOMAS, J. B. art. 184
TISDALE, S. L. rev. 144
Transpiration of intact plants under controlled light, humidity, and temperature. A method for measuring. art. 350
TRYON, E. H. art. 32
Two natural Iowa hybrid poplars. art. 253
Unexplained brooming of Douglas-fir and other conifers in British Columbia and Alberta. art. 236
VITÉ, J. P. art. 156
WARD, RICHARD C. art. 61, 168
WATERMAN, ALMA M. art. 175
WETZEL, BARTON F. art. 350
WHITE, GILBERT F. rev. 70
WILLINGHAM, J. W. art. 270
WINER, HERBERT I. art. (rev.) 234
WORDEN, H. A. art. 263
World geography of forest resources. A. rev. 136
WRIGHT, Ernest. art. 275
WRIGHT, JOHN K. rev. 136
Yeasts with the Douglas-fir beetle. Association of. art. 336
Yellow-poplar dieback. Observations on. art. 84
Yellow-poplar. Effect of precipitation and temperature on increment of. art. 32
ZIVNUSKA, JOHN. art. 210
ZOBEL, B. J. art. 281
